13. [   ] Representative Bob Wilson called to say that a constituent has contacted him about an individual who presumably is a former CIA employee but is now working in some capacity with OPEC countries. Wilson said the individual uses the name [   ] and a telephone number [   ] On the basis of our checks with Personnel, Security and DDO, I advised Wilson later in the day that we had no record of the employment of [   ] but we did have information about him indicating that in the 1965-66 time frame he had represented himself as an employee of this Agency and another instance as recent as 1968. I told Wilson we had no idea of the significance of the telephone number he gave us and as he knew, we had no basis for making an inquiry with respect either to [   ] or the telephone number Wilson said he understood and thanked me for the information I had given him. He said he might also check with FBI but I asked, in doing so, that he not give any indication of an Agency referral. He said he understood.

14. [_____] Allen Rexinger on the staff of Representative Robert McCloskey (R., Calif.) called and asked me to recount again for him my understanding of the situation with respect to Representative Michael Harrington's (D., Mass.) disclosure of information contained in the Director's briefing of House Armed Services CIA Subcommittee on Agency activities in Chile. I reviewed the situation as I know it but suggested to Rexinger that the best sources of information were Representative Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.) and Frank Slatinshek of the House Armed Services Committee.

18. [_____] [_____] OPR, called to seek guidance on a request he had received from a friend on the staff of Senator Pearson (R., Kan.) for information on the Junta Democratics of Spain, a group currently making the rounds in Washington. [_____] said that he had talked to several people in the Agency about the group and had drawn together the information which his friend was after. I told [_____] he had to get out of the middle of this one and that one of the functions of this office was handling requests such as this. He said he understood this and gave me the name of his friend, [_____] He said he wasn't sure whether this was a personal request or an "official" one.
